Kiss Today Good Bye . . . The Sweetness And The Sorrow

My vibratto just ain't what it used to be.

Is that right Ms. Vautrin?

A woman's place is behind her man.

How's your love life??

Bubu baluu.

Mirror, mirror on the wall . . .

What We Did

We Had To Do.

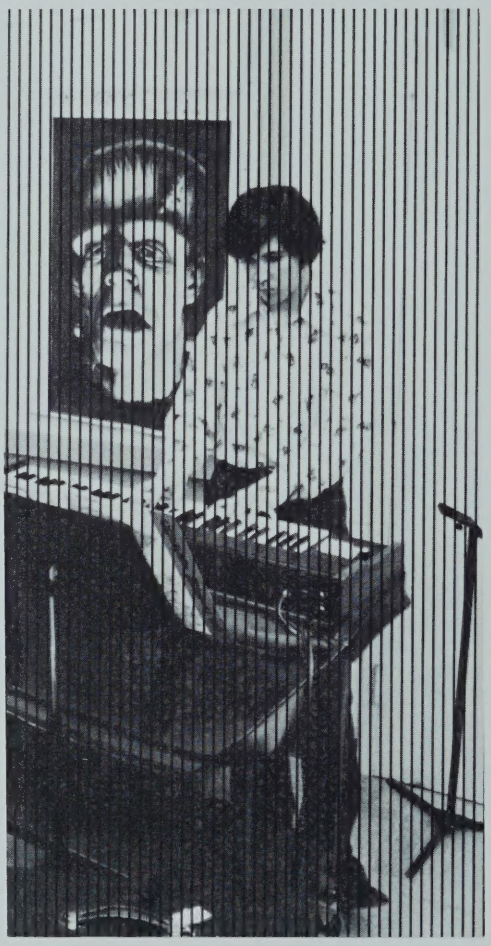
And We Can't Regret

Jamie Elizabeth meet MHS.

What was that about the full moon being a week early?

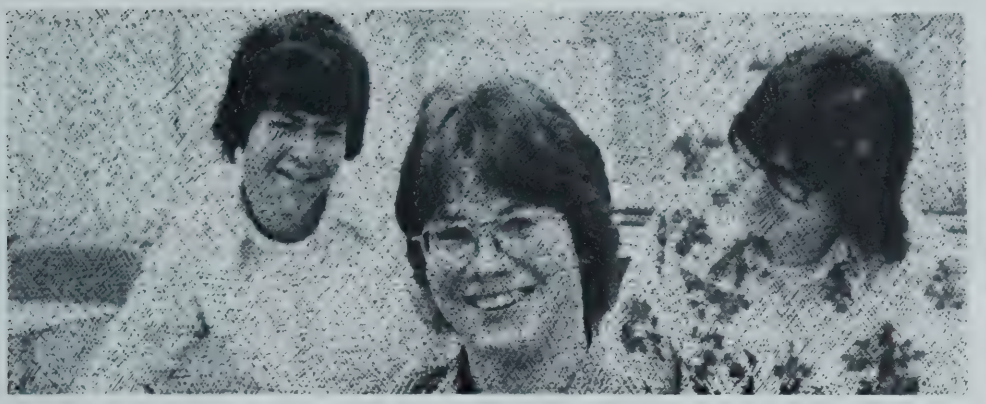
The nerve of you copying my hair style.



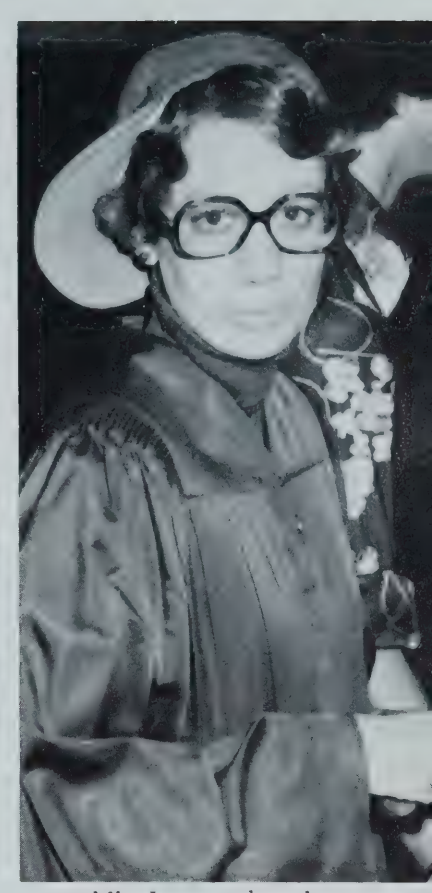
Genius at work.

Down boy, down.

What We Did For Love . . .



20 percent fewer cavities.



Miss Jones, take a letter.

Slip out the back, Jack.

Foon's cat.

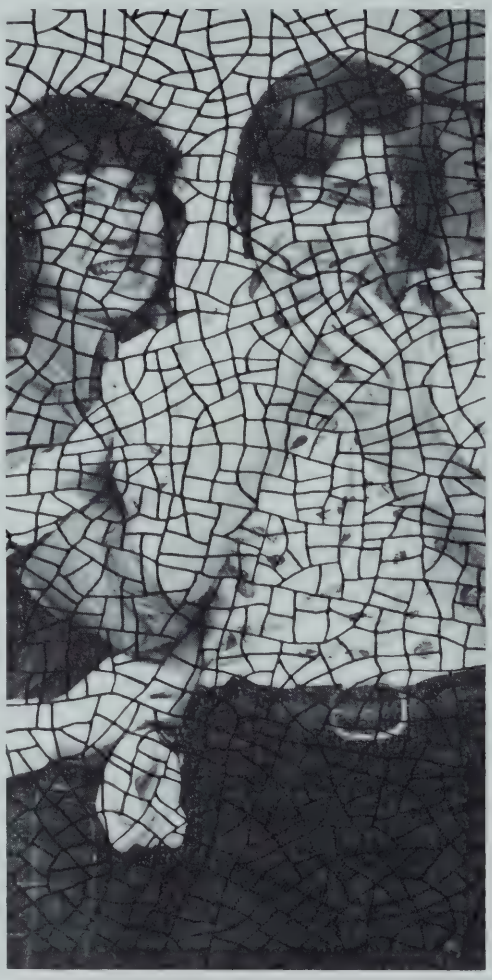
The jokes on them.

Look Our Eyes Are Dry;

Ground control to Chiquita.

Standing ovation.

God, make her stop talking!



Ahah! We caught you.

The voice of the Hornets.

Smite!!

Aw shucks, fellows.

The Dream Was Ours To Borrow

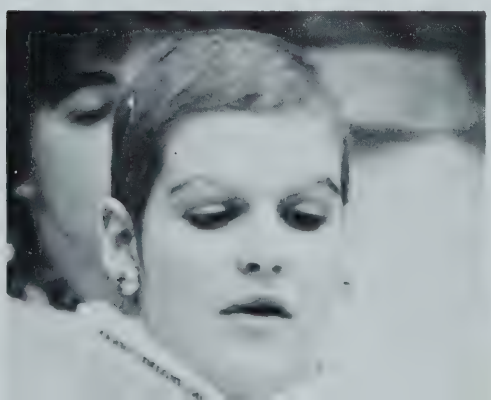
Mr. and Mrs. Herbie

O, lordy, O, lordy.

Get your eyes back on the game.

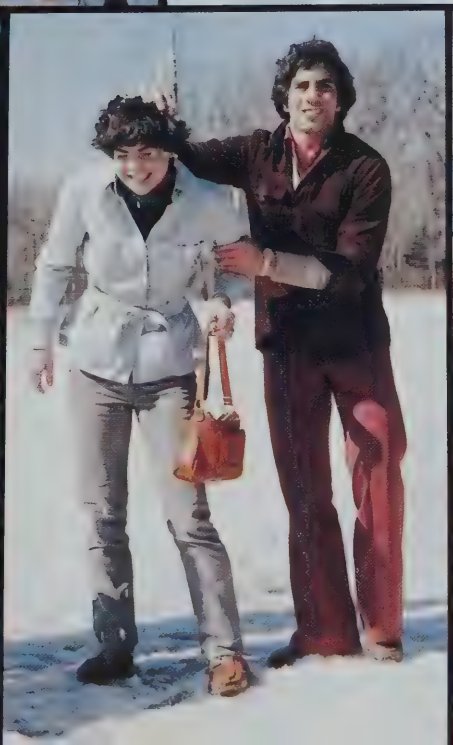
Deb, stop thinking about Friday night.

Who does she think she's kidding!



It's As If We Always Knew

But We Won't Forget What We Did For Love.

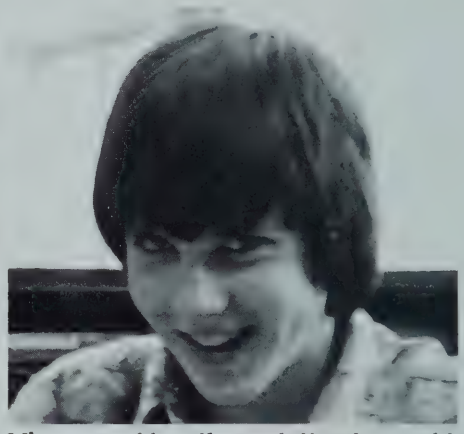


Gone, Love Is Never Gone, As We

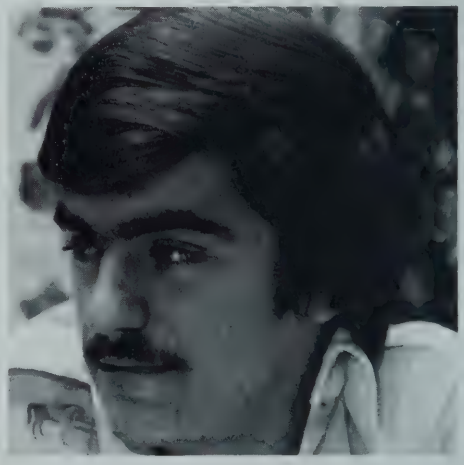
That was fun, let's do it again.

Mmmm, good.

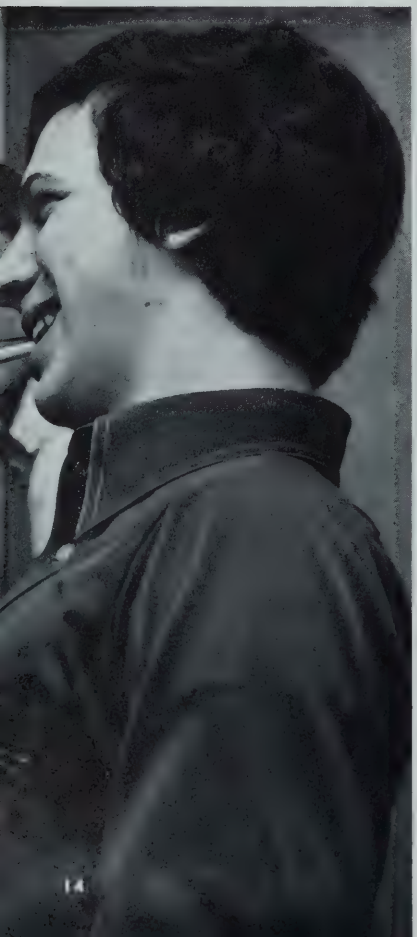
My father said that, not me.

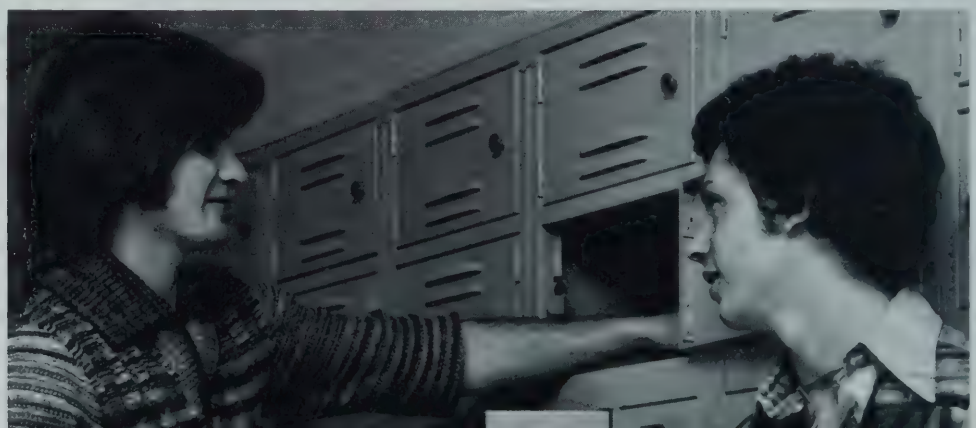


Whoever said smiles and dimples could get you nowhere.

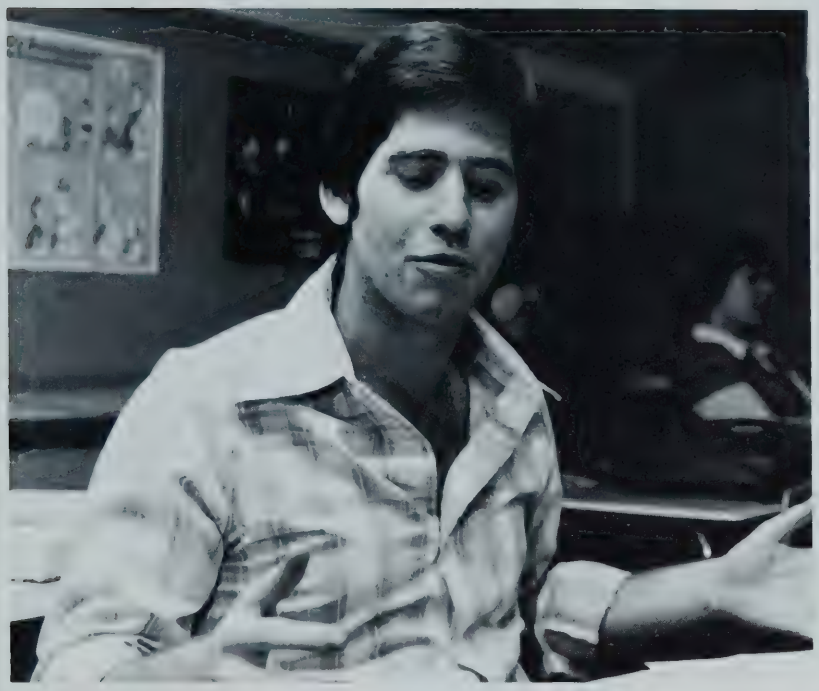


We said bite your tongue not your lip.





Travel On Love's What We'll Remember.

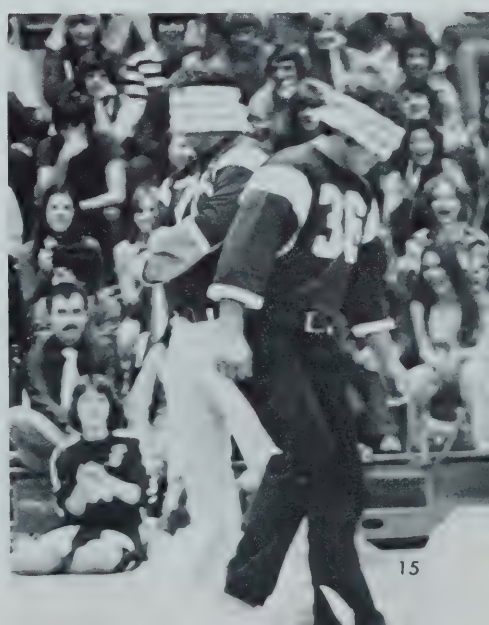


Would you believe, this big??

Guess who?

All I did was look at her!!

June Taylor, eat your heart out.



Dedication

MRS. MARGUERITE NELSON

We, the class of 1977, would like to express our appreciation to Mrs. Marguerite Nelson, our guidance secretary for giving so much of herself for our benefit. She devotes long hours, many of which are overtime, typing transcripts and applications for colleges and scholarships. She takes it upon herself to make sure that each of us is informed of a new scholarship, and to remind us of upcoming deadlines. In short, if it were not for this generous lady, the future would not be as bright for many of us.

Mrs. Nelson, we dedicate this yearbook to you as a token of our lasting appreciation. You will always hold a warm place in our hearts.

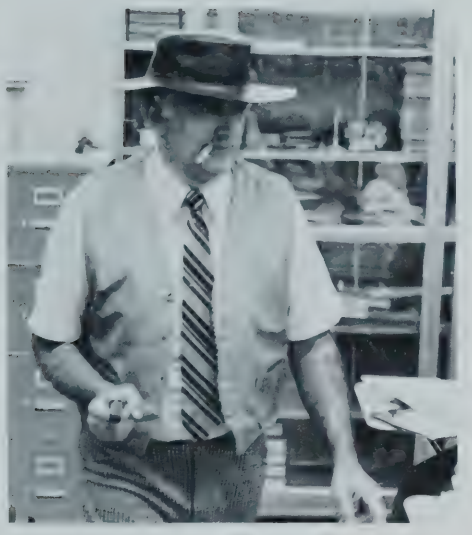
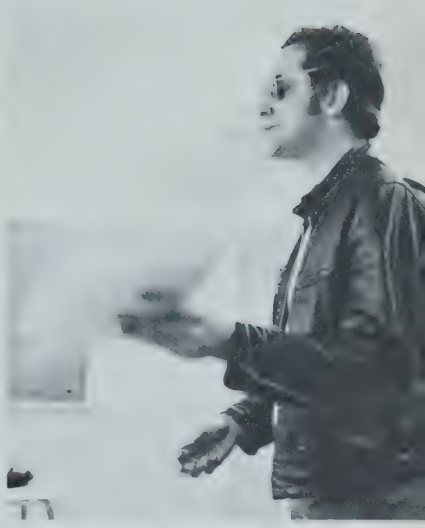
"The Great Mansfield Caper"



There is only one thing we can do and that is to form a posse and head them off at the pass.

They're going to do what?



Now look men - we all know what has to be done tonight!

According to the FBI Crime Lab Report this is really a big one.

Officers, we only know what we told you already.

Boy! Something is fishy about this whole thing.

Any luck, men?

By the time they figure it out, I'll be in Phoenix!

The Freshman Class started off with Gregg Abbott elected president, Kim Windom as v.p., John Czuj as treasurer and Linda Coggshell as secretary. The class had a slow start with the first fund-raising event Rent-a-Kid, but had a tremendous upswing in the candle sale making more than any other freshman class in the history of Mansfield High. Jay Doyle was the leading seller. In finishing off the year, the freshmen had a fun and successful car wash. The Freshmen are hoping for more good years to come.

During the class of '79's Sophomore year, the officers were Glenn Fournier, president; Nancy Roach, v.p.; Robin Goddard, treasurer; Diane Main, secretary. Throughout the sophomore year, the Class of '79 had participated in many successful fund raisers. For example, a cake sale and a car wash were held in the first part of the year. Soon after our class worked very hard at selling calendars. The time came to order our class rings, but we still found time to hold a dance for the student body. In closing, the sophomores would like to thank our advisor, Miss Carbonetti, for her devoted time towards a very successful year.

The Junior Class elected Bruce D'Ambra as president, Mary Conroy as v.p., Denise Holland as secretary and Greg Galanti as treasurer. The class of 1978 started off the year by continuing the sale of the "Mansfield" shirts. Then during the football season, they held the "spirit link competition," followed by the Catherine Beich candy sale. Shortly afterward the juniors started on the "Junior Prom-Senior Reception." The year ended up with the next year elections.

As '76 came to a close, the Senior Class emerged with 3 new officers. Jim Peloquin was elected president. Bill Cleary - v.p. and Jeanne Grady as secretary. Eileen Repucci again was elected to her fourth term as treasurer. With little experiences under their belt, the officers set off to make 1977 the best year MHS has ever seen.

The first fundraiser was the Sadie Hawkins Dance. Overall, the dance was a big success. With a class full of Betty Crockers, the seniors decided to hold a cake sale. It was held at Fernandes and it too was a success. They also held a car wash with a majority of the class participating.

Thanksgiving rolled around as did the annual carnation sale, along with the spirit buttons, they sold very well. In need of a fund-raiser, the class of '77 decided to show, "Back to the Woods" and "Harry and Walter Go to New York." Next in line was the Spaghetti Supper. As an annual event, the turn-out was very good. The class banquet was held at the Red Snapper and a good time was had by all.

Finally we experienced the glory and self-satisfaction of Class Day, Scholarship Day and Graduation.

In Memory Of . . .

Denise Lynn Colson

"To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven.

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to reap;

A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up.

A time to laugh, and a time to weep; a time to dance, and a time to mourn;

A time to cast away stones. A time to gather stones together . . ."

Lori Lee Secher

". . . A time to gain, and a time to lose; a time to keep, a time to cast away;

A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace."

1976 was the year that the varsity football team finally did it. After seven years of losing seasons, the Green Hornets won the Hockomock League championship winning eight games while only dropping one contest (21-20 to North Attleboro.)

The '76 super season started on September 18 in Norton. Elmars Reks scored three touchdowns on way to a 32-0 shelling of the Lancers. The Green Monster defense held Norton to two first downs and only two big plays.

On the next Saturday, Mansfield picked up where it left off against Norton as they plastered the Oliver Ames Tigers, 40-14. Elmars tore off 185 rushing yards and two more T.D.'s. Captain Larry Mahoney scored two touchdowns one of them being a great 44 yard run to paydirt. The Hornet offensive team racked up 452 yards.

After soundly defeating two last place teams, the Green Machine faced its first true test against the defending league champions, the Stoughton Black Knights.

After playing to an 8-8 halftime deadlock, the Hornets got what proved to be the winning touchdown as Larry Mahoney turned in an electrifying 66 yard score. Larry scored again later in the game and was joined by junior Steve Lively who also had a pair of T.D.'s to make the final score 29-8.

The Hornets came home to play their first home game of the season against the Franklin Panthers. We chose Denise Fournier to be our Homecoming Queen.

Franklin was prepared and held Mansfield to one touchdown which was scored by Reks late in the third period. However, the Green Monster defense led by Dana Wellington, Joe Nett, Steve Lively, and Eddie Jackimowicz held the Panthers to 61 yards and no touchdowns. Mansfield won its fourth straight, a 6-0 defensive battle over Franklin.

Up until this year, Sharon had never defeated Mansfield in football. And it appeared that tradition was going to follow as Sharon's Bill Dryden, the Hockomock League's leading scorer, put the Eagles out in front 7-0 early in the first period. For more than 30 minutes, Sharon had Mansfield against the ropes. A 15 yard pass from Jim Peloquin to Ed Jackimowicz brought the Hornets one point behind, 7-6. Peloquin then hit Capt. Mahoney for the two point conversion and with 8½ minutes remaining in the game, Mansfield was in the lead to stay, 8-7. Two minutes later, Lively scored against a worn out Eagle defense for the second Hornet score. Junior Chris Gonsalves intercepted a pass and went 40 yards for the final touchdown. When the dust had cleared, Mansfield had won its fifth straight with a tough 22-7 victory over Sharon.

Luck played a big part in the game versus King Philip. Steve Lively scored the only touchdown of the day as the Green and White barely beat K.P. 6-0. The only bright spot was that Elmars Reks had another big day with 119 yards.

Now it was time for the big one against North.

The Red Rocketteers spoiled the Homecoming last year by edging the Hornets 13-12. North wasted no time scoring against the Hornets. Mansfield came right back with Elmars scoring a T.D. and the two point P.A.T. and half way through the first half, M.H.S. led 8-7. A 33 yard pass from Peloquin to Bill Cleary with 35 seconds left in the half. However, N.A. tied the game up at 14 as Carl Hebert found Mike Redding in the end zone for a 30 yard pass. That sort of took the air out of Mansfield's balloon. Elmars scored his eighth touchdown of the season in the third period. But North scored the winning points with six minutes left in the game to knock Mansfield from the ranks of the undefeated. However, good news came from Sharon later that afternoon as the Eagles beat first place Canton, thus setting up the championship game on the following Saturday.

Elmars Reks and Jim Peloquin picked up a touchdown as the Green Hornets earned at least a tie for the league title with a 14-0 victory over the Bulldogs.

The Mansfield offense chalked up 257 yards while the Hornet defense kept the Bulldogs to just four first downs.

Mansfield ended a great season with a 30-0 thrashing of their arch-rival Foxboro Warriors. Bill Cleary was named the game's M.V.P. with two touchdown passes thrown by Jim Peloquin. Steve Lively and Bob Smith added the two other Hornet touchdowns. Elmars Reks became the first Hornet player since Bob Smith in 1968 to gain more than 1,000 yards rushing. He earned 1,013 yards.

It took seven years but it was worth waiting for.

The field hockey season was filled with suspense with the Hornet girls playing many very tight games.

Mansfield started off on the wrong foot by losing three straight games. But on September 29 the Hornets beat Canton 1-0. The Green and White made it two in a row with a 1-nil victory over King Philip. Mansfield kept their unbeaten streak alive at three with a 1-1 tie against Stoughton. The Hornets beat Stoughton the second time around 1-0.

Senior captain Terri Sparrow was picked as the M.H.S. representative on the All-Hockomock All-Star Team.

Playing their hardest were co-captains Robin Roane and Terri Sparrow. Seniors Diane Cataloni, Karen Collins, Debbie Conroy, Vera Fitzgerald, Denise Fournier, Denise Newell, and Linda Eusepi. Juniors were Mary Conroy, Anne Coughlin, Elaine DeLong, Pam Marvelle, Betsy McPhee, Chris Morton, Sue Sankey and Rose Shaw.

The '77 Hornet Cross Country Team had a disappointing season but kept the spirit high all through the fall. The Hornet Warriors started the year off well with non-league wins over W. Bridgewater, 17-39 and Dover-Sherborn 22-35. But their Hockomock League opponents were too tough to handle. Mansfield found wins over Foxboro in their first league and Canton in the second. After that, the Hornets dropped 13 straight meets. The Hornets finished in eighth place in the Hock League Championships. Running well for Mansfield was senior captains John Engley, Ron Chapman, juniors Steve Fitzgerald, Scott DeGirolamo, Dennis Murray, and Mike Beach, and sophomores Tom Harding, Doug Muise, Jim LeShane, and Bruce Formnals. The outstanding fan was CCBI capt. Bill Frank.

For the third straight year, the Hornet boys basketball team had a tough season. The Hornets led by captains Kevin Bell, Andy Regula, and Tom Finn could only muster four wins in 18 ball games.

In the first win of the '76-'77 season, the Green Machine took North Attleboro, 61-60. The ball game went back and forth until Bell hit a free throw with 2:36 remaining to clinch the victory. N.A. had a chance to tie the game in the last 15 seconds but missed a foul shot.

Mansfield played the best game of the year against Canton as the Green Hornets walloped the Bulldogs 82-70. Paul Souza threw in a career high of 35 points while Kevin Bell added 27 big ones of his own. It was the only easy game the Hornets played all year.

The only team Mansfield was to beat twice was King Philip, in the Albertini gym 56-54 and in Wrentham 61-59.

Mansfield in their finale against Norton looked as if they had the Lancers pinned against the wall for three periods. But the Lancers came roaring back and took the lead late in the game and went on to beat rival Mansfield 64-60.

About the only good news this season for Mansfield was the play of sophomore center Paul Souza. Souza collected 300 points and was the second leading scorer in the Hockomock League. Paul was the first sophomore in M.H.S. history to score 300 points. Kevin scored 230 points on the season and placed his name eleventh on the M.H.S. career scoring list.

The 1976-77 girls basketball season for the Mansfield Hornets was one of excitement. The Hornets came off of two strong performances in the beginning of the season, beating Norwell 38-32 and destroying Norton 26-23. But the Hornets lost eight games that were decided within ten points. Just like the boys team, Mansfield was victorious over the Warriors of King Philip, 46-38 and 32-31.

Denise Fournier was Mansfield's representative on the All Hockomock League cage team as she averaged ten points per game and 14 rebounds per contest. Denise was the top foul shooter on the club and was an outstanding leader.

Robin Roane and Mary Conroy played strong offensive and defensive games all season long.

One main set back for the girls hoop team was the ankle injury to captain Terri Sparrow. Her presence on the floor was sorely missed by the Hornets.

One of the most successful sports teams this year was the Hornets indoor track team. Mansfield went through the season with six wins and one tough loss and winning the Hockomock League Championship Meet.

After the Hornets destroyed Sharon in the first meet, 56-30, Mansfield was to meet the defending champion Franklin Panthers. Franklin had beaten the Hornets by four points the year before. Franklin took Mansfield to the final relay before defeating them, 46-40. The Panthers went on to go undefeated and win the Dual Meet championship.

Mansfield blasted the remaining teams on the schedule, the closest meet being a 51-35 romp over the Foxboro Foxes. Mansfield for the first time in the school's history came home with Hockomock League Championship trophy. The Hornets scored 37 points beating second place Franklin by nine and one-half points.

The shot put team of Neil Davison, Steve Lively, Gus Bregnard, and Joe Nett swept that event for the seven dual meets scoring 63 points out of a possible 63.

All Hockomock League honors went to Neil Davison in the shot put and Mark Colby in the high jump.

Other outstanding performances were turned in by Scott DeGirolamo and Tom O'Leary in the one mile, Ron Chapman and Matt O'Leary in the 600 yard run, Jeff Mason and Rich Fournier in the 300 yard dash, John Engley and Ron King in the 1,000 yard run, Steve Fitzgerald and Paul King in the two mile, Dan Lamagno in the hurdles, Dirk Lamagno and Chris Barrows in the 50 yard dash, and Mark Colby and Ron Pllof in the high jump.

"If I've told you once, I've told you a thousand times . . ."

1977 was a great year for the Hornet nine. Under first year coach David Law, Mansfield had ten wins and eight losses and finished third in the Hockomock League.

The Hornets opened its season by winning four out of its first five games. Scott Buchanan and Tom Finn scored the winning runs in two close games against North Attleboro and Sharon. Canton handed Mansfield its first Hockomock loss in an error filled 15-4 slaughter. M.H.S. took King Philip but lost two one-run games to Franklin and Stoughton, 3-2 and 5-4.

Although the Hornets placed no one on the All Hockomock team, Bruce McPhee led the league's pitchers with an eight and two record. Captain Bob Smith and Bill Cleary led the team in hitting while second baseman Dave Hallgren made 87 plays and made one error.

"This'll fool you!"

The Hornet girls also had a tough spring winning three games. Mansfield had successes against Foxboro, Sharon, and West Bridgewater.

Senior Captain Robin Roane once again did a fantastic job on and off the field. She was voted the Most Valuable Player by her teammates. Catcher Pam Marvelle was awarded the outstanding effort award.

Others on the team were Linda Eusepi, Denise Newell, Sara Rivera, Sue Anders, Paula Chambers, Jean Todesco, Lisa Kelley, Colleen O'Malley, Janice Wilkinson, Terry Mastrolli, and Ellen O'Malley.

With the success of the junior varsity, Coach Nancy Hanlon should have some exciting seasons in the near future.

Boys Spring Track

The Mansfield boys track team has proved itself to be one of the top squads in Massachusetts. Mansfield opened its season with a come from behind win against Foxboro.

After that shaky start, the Hornets went on to win their next five dual meets scoring over 100 points. During that stretch, Mansfield successfully defended their Kelly Relay title and won the Division Three State Coaches Relays.

Mansfield shifted its line up and easily took care of last place Oliver Ames, 87-49. But on the next day, Sharon overpowered the Hornets and handed Mansfield its first loss in 20 meets. Mansfield easily won the Hockomock League Championship Meet and the South Shore Principal's Meet.

This year the team had it together. The 440 relay team of Dan and Dirk Lamagno, Jeff Mason, and Chris Barrows had one of the best time's in the state. Sophomore Paul Souza earned his way to the New England meet in the high jump. This year he set a new school record of 6 feet 9 inches. Souza, Dan Lamagno, Ron Chapman, and Elmars Reks made it to the All Hock League track team. Ron Chapman holds six school records. Neil Davison, Elmars Reks and Steve Lively led the team in the discus and shot put. Steve Fitzgerald, Scott DeGirolamo, Tom Harding, John Engley, Kevin Bell, and Tom O'Leary were the main point getters in the distance events. Pole vault team grew stronger with the likes of Ernie Khivallah, Jay and Dennis Buckley. Others who contributed immensely were Matt O'Leary, Paul King, Scott Bregnard, Roland Schaupp, and Joe Nett. For coaches, Brian Friary and Jim Todd, the dynasty lives on.

Girls Spring Track

The Hornets continued their great success in girls track placing second in the Hockomock League with a 6 and 2 record. The team was led by two great competitors, Denise Fournier and Maura Tighe.

Fournier, the 1977 Girl Athlete, demonstrated style and grace while performing in the long jump, the 220 and 440. Denise holds five school records in her four years at M.H.S. Maura Tighe is one of the top athletes to participate in sports in the past decade. Maura's sense of humor and pride only outdo her athletic accomplishments. She holds six M.H.S. track records. Maura won the high jump, with an injury, to spark a come from behind win over Oliver Ames.

Mary Nash ran the anchor leg of the mile relay and scored many points in the 440. Terri Sparrow was also a great competitor running the 100 yard dash and the 440 relay. Debbie Conroy threw the discus and ran the 880 and the 440 relay. Karen Collins was effective in the long jump.

The underclassmen were a big factor in this year's successful season. Sue Lanagan, Karen Zecher, Sue Mayo, Carolyn Morton, Pam Chapman, Jill Hinchey, Diane Tighe, Sue Miller, and Donna Ploof will provide the strength for the 1978 team.

Ron Reardon once again can take credit for this remarkable season. In his four years as M.H.S. track coach, Mr. Reardon has a record of 26 wins and 10 losses. Someday Coach Reardon will get that championship trophy.

Boys Tennis

The tennis teams had a tough year in the Hockomock League winning only five out of 32 games.

The boys had two wins against Canton and West Bridgewater. In first singles was junior captain Max Bernhiemer. Second singles was played by junior Bill McMahon and freshman Bob Simoni was the third singles player. Junior Curt Oldmixon and sophomore Bruce Formhals took care of the first doubles play and freshman Paul Fournier and Richard Kinder competed in second doubles.

The 1976-77 Student Council began its year with the election of four officers: Kim Kane, president; Gregg Galanti, v.p.; Elizabeth Horton, secretary; Effie Boutas, treasurer. The various activities then began by running elections for class officers. Indulging further into the year the Student Council were responsible for the Homecoming queen and her court. Then the annual Christmas dance arrived, and although the Student Council broke even, it was an enjoyable night, not to mention the hilarious dress-up day before. Taking time out for a few blood samples - they were able to organize a very successful blood mobile collecting a total of 45 pints. Moving on - everyone started to slick their hair back and swing into the greaser days bringing everyone to 50's Day and the Dance, both of which were successful. To this year's graduating class the Student Council are honored to be able to grant four one-hundred dollar scholarships, wishing them all happiness and success for the future.

The 1976-77 Concert Choir began its year by electing new officers in June. Those elected were Maura Tighe (pres.), Marc Pascucci (business manager), Dana Wellington (coordinator), Donna Deltano (secretary), Jeanne Grady (publicity), Helen Devlin (program and ticket design), Andrew Mutz (set design), Donna Udall (treasurer), and Mary Sherman and Beth Horton (librarians). Our first job as officers was to come up with a major fund-raiser and we chose to have a tee-shirt sale. In six weeks, every other girl in school was wearing our famous "Foxy Lady" tee-shirt, which was our biggest seller.

Next on our agenda was auditions for the District Chorus. Those who auditioned and made it were Beth Horton, Jeanne Grady, Ana Sternlight, Donna Deltano, and William Wilcox. Beth Horton was chosen for All-State Chorus also.

Soon December came along, and the Choir performed a total of five Christmas concerts, including our annual Christmas program which this year was a short play entitled "Tis the Season."

As the year wore on the Choir decided one final project. At the end of April the Choir recorded a record which served as a lasting memory of our busy year, especially for the Seniors. The choir is one activity which will be greatly missed by the departing seniors.

Class History

As we take a look back into our past four years at M.H.S., we see that there were many happenings. We had come from the Qualters Middle School, where we were involved in a solid year of eighth grade-itis. In the Middle School we were the oldest and the most "powerful." As we entered the high school, we dropped right down to the bottom - to pea green frosh. We were stepped on and used, and most of all, initiated into the high school. Freshman initiation was something else and we fought it every step of the way.

The next step in becoming a real class was to elect officers. This was something new to all of us, but we went through with it. The Freshman officers were: Ernie Khirallah, President; Jonathan Pierce, Vice President; Diane Cataloni, Secretary; and Eileen Repucci, Treasurer. Mrs. Small volunteered to be our advisor, and so we were on our way. Our only fund raiser was a somewhat unorganized and unprofitable paper drive in April, 1974.

At the end of Freshman year, we once again had officer elections. This time Jenny Taylor was President; Maura Tighe, Vice President; Diane Cataloni, Secretary; and Eileen Repucci, Treasurer. We began our Sophomore year preparing for a float contest which was to arouse spirit for the football season. The contest was put on by the Seniors, and when we little Sophomores won, well that was unexpected. Anyway, this win entitled us to enter our float in Mansfield's Bicentennial Parade, which was a lot of fun.

We held our first cake sale in December, 1974. This went smoothly and spurred us on to hold a dance in January, which also went well. We held another cake sale in April, and as we neared the end of Sophomore year we ordered our class rings. To finish off the year, we held a used book sale. Those books we didn't sell, we donated to the school library. Then it was once again time for elections and the outcome of this election showed that the officers would remain the same.

During June we began preparations for the Junior Prom-Senior Reception. We decided to hold the Prom at the Lantana in Randolph where it was held the previous year. In our Sophomore year we had purchased several hundred "spirit buttons" from the outgoing Seniors. So in September of our Junior year, we began our long campaign to sell them throughout the school.

To keep ourselves busy we also began the traditional Junior Candy Sale. Mr. Dunphy was now our Assistant Advisor and he helped, along with Mrs. Small, to make the sale run smoothly as possible. Although we had several problems, it was a success.

We also held the annual "spirit link" contest. We won, but of course everyone accused the Juniors of cheating since we ran it, and since Juniors are supposed to win. But we really didn't cheat, we just had a lot of spirit. In January we held a cake sale and in February, we held a Valentine Raffle with our extra candy. Soon after that we began our long preparation for the Prom. It was held at the end of May, and our hard work was well worth it, as all who attended had a good time.

It was nearing the end of the Junior year and elections were held for the last time, James Peloquin, President; William Cleary, Vice President; Jeanne Grady, Secretary; and Eileen Repucci, Treasurer.

In June we began to prepare for senior pictures, and we took on the responsibilities of our yearbook. In August, many class members got together to paint arm bands for the now Mighty Seniors. Miss Maurer replaced Mr. Dunphy as Assistant Advisor. She was soon to be replaced by Mr. Barnes, who is presently our Assistant Advisor. We started the year off with several good fundraisers. First was the Sadie Hawkins Dance, one of the best conducted dances ever held. Then we had a Senior Car Wash and we also continued to sell spirit buttons.

When it finally came time to initiate the baby Freshmen, we had nothing but trouble from start to finish. We were restricted in every direction and then the most appalling thing of all, was that a Senior had to have the consent of a Freshman to initiate him. Well, we lived through that episode anyway, and went on to sell carnations before the Turkey Day Game.

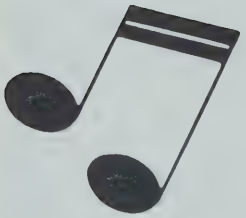
We held a cake sale in December, and in February, we went through a disasterous fund raiser, the showing of movies. To make up for that, we held our last fund raiser, the Annual Spaghetti Supper. This went pretty well and so brought our money making days to an end.

As the Class of 1977 finishes preparing for the Class Banquet and for our graduation, we finally come to the end of our years at Mansfield High School. Our sincere thanks go to all those who have helped us come this far, especially to advisors Mrs. Linda Small and Mr. Brian Barnes. We still haven't sold all our spirit buttons, and a few people are holding out on returning candy money, but these past four years have been quite an experience. All we can say to conclude them is "It's been real."

Class Song

Meeting The New Day — Music By Keith Hayes Words By Keith Hayes And Mark Lebel

Dreams aren't just for dreamers
Memories aren't just for rainy days
Today's the day to look beyond our horizons.
Meeting, Meeting the new day
Won't be so hard, we've been this way before
Together we stand, together we grew in friendship.
Come, Come — follow me
Come — together we'll see
There's a light burning bright, on our paths to tomorrow, In our minds and our souls too.



Come, Come — follow me
Come — together we'll see
That our lives will be joined, By some way in spirit, and for sure we'll know it.

MHS's Trivia Quiz

Members of the Class of 1977 should have no trouble answering most of the questions below when they first receive their yearbooks. However years from now when you're reminiscing with old classmates you may regard some of these as impossible. Each correct answer is weighted according to difficulty and is worth the amount noted alongside the question.

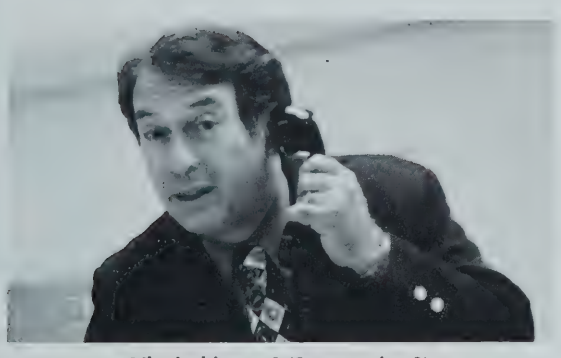
Do you consider this person to be a Little Man On Campus? (Also see page 82)

1. In what town is Mansfield High School located? (2 pts.)

2. Who was the principal of MHS in 1977? (5 pts.)

3. What were your grades? (subtract 10 pts.; some things are better forgotten.)

4. Name a topic on which you wrote a term paper. (5 pts.)



Who is this man? (See question 2)

5. Name the person with whom you attended the Class Banquet. (10 pts.; 2 pts. if you're married to him or her.)

6. Name all your class officers for each of your four years. (100 pts.)

7. Name any class officer for any year. (2 pts.)

8. Who gave you your first mark below a "C"? (10 pts.; if you never received a mark below a "C" subtract 10 points, you snob.)

9. Tell the funniest joke you heard while at MHS. (10 pts.; 0 pts. if you heard it from a teacher.)

10. Out of the total faculty, how many of them were the Class of 1977's advisors? (10 pts. If you can count that high.)

It's one of those nice graduation traditions: switching the tassel on your cap from one side to the other just after you receive your diploma. This tells the world you've completed a chapter in your life—successfully—and that you're ready for the next adventure, be it the beginning of a career or further education. With new ideas
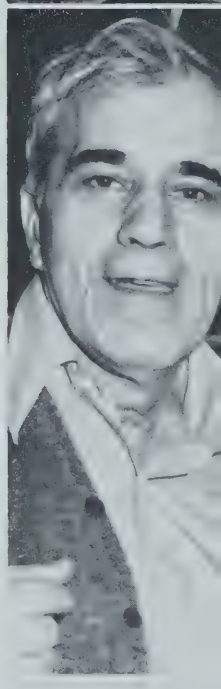
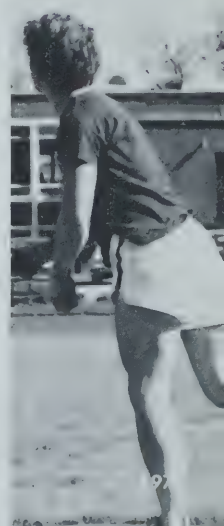
For young insurance consumers.



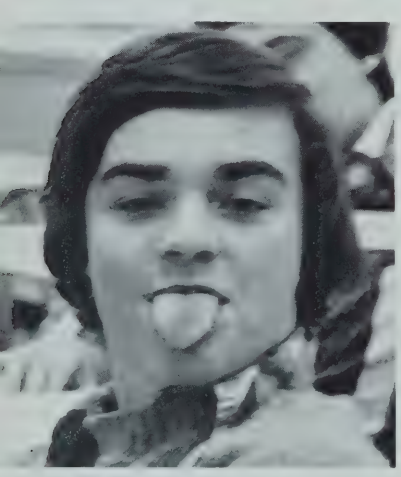


Kiss Today Goodbye And Point

"I think they're wise to us!"

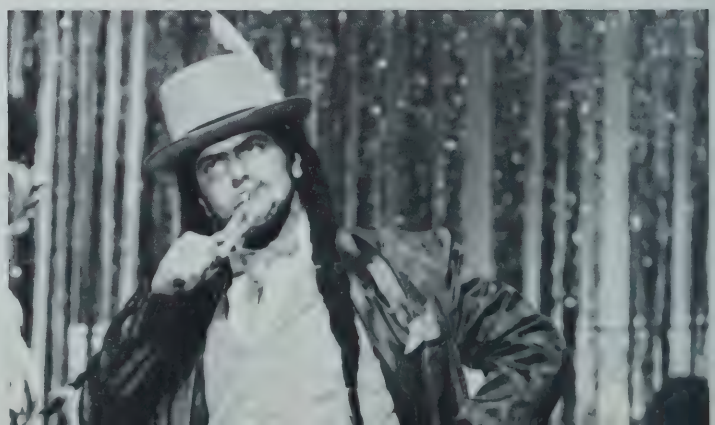
"But the war of 1812 wasn't funny!"

"Same to you buddy."



"See, no gum."

"Hey, cheating is kinda fun!"



Us Toward Tomorrow . . .

"The Thinker?"

"Slurp"

"And further more . . .

"Come on, buy one!"

"B.M.O.C."

"Whose idea was this anyway?"

Wish Us Luck, The Same To You, Won't

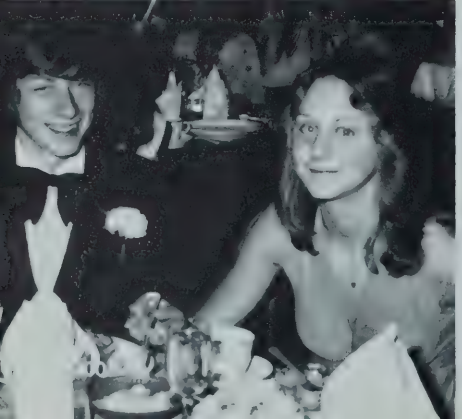
"Ho hum - another day!"

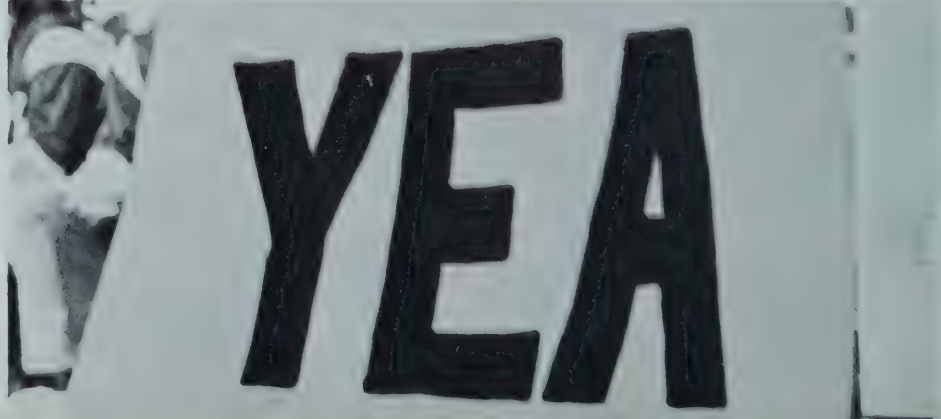
"What do you think of this new kids cereal?"

"What, me worry!?"

"Me no squaw."

"Gotcha!"





Forget, Can't Regret What We Did For Love

"I'm a real swinger."

Censored

"Alone at last."

"But winter lingering, chills the lap of May."

"What do you mean I missed my cue!"

Love to hear percussion.

"Oh oh, the band's at it again."

"D-u-u-u-h!"

Class Will

Robin Roane leaves Bones a box of Kleenex, a bottle of Mich, and a chipped tooth to remind her of the long overnight parties. And she leaves the softball team in the basement at 2:03.

Dave Hallgren, Kevin Bell, Jim Bachman, and Bruce McPhee leave Paul Souza his own private audience to dunk a basketball in front of; and a book entitled "101 Ways to Be a Hotdog."

The Geeps leave Mr. Dunn still wondering what Geep means.

Janet Fuller and Robin Roane leave Mr. Pacella a years supply of passes and a stop watch so he'll know how long it takes him to kick everyone out of the library.

Vera Fitzgerald leaves Denise Holland to be the new S.W.A.T. leader and pads so when they "hit it" they won't get bruised; and to her brother Steve, the 2nd biggest head award next to P.S.

Donna Harris leaves Holly Murphy the keys to Grandma's.

Jane Mitchell leaves happily, and to Ann Tears, Elaine Bouchard, Kathy Harsch, Charlie Bouchard, Val Olden, Etc., a lonely Drama Class.

Maura Tighe leaves Danny May 1 can of "Babo" so that he can be next year's janitor. And to Cindy Maxwell and Jill Hinchey, the job of giving the Track Team pre-meet talks, and the 4 × 110 relay.

Lisa Dion, Helen Devlin, Felicia Kuplast, Patti Cobb, and Jeanne Grady leave to our freshman jocks: Russell, Matthew, and Roland, a box of bandaids, a case of Heinikien, and a reserved spot for the Cadillac at CC&F.

Kim Kane leaves Denise Holland a year's supply of asprins so she can make it over the headaches the cheering squad will give her; and she leaves the morning squak box to next year's big mouth - Angela.

Jon Pierce leaves Miss Trombley one non-fade orange sweatshirt.

Karen Collins leaves Bill Cleary "feet for dancing"; and to the M.H.S. Band - "harmony" in the truest sense of the word.

The Calculus class leaves Miss Vautrin a year's supply of rice for when, if ever, she gets married.

Jane Sullivan, Michelle Ethier, and Mary Sherman leave Danny May in New Hampshire.

The Co-Captains of the Math League leave to the Math League - ten tickets to Lincoln Park, McDonald's gift certificates, and a bottle of sangria to hold them over through those exciting lectures on Math Day.

Mary Nash leaves the track underclassmen to take care of Dad.

Mark Bittick leaves Mr. Harsch a year's supply of No-Doz to pass out to his physics classes. And to the band, a football field of its own so it can march around on Saturday afternoons without bothering people who want to see the game.

Jamie Williamson leaves Mr. Bushman and Miss Vautrin no more hassles.

Doreen Cataldo leaves Mr. McMorrow a videotape machine that doesn't shut off until the end of the program.

Judi Burke leave Chris Morton to be the head ding-a-ling of the Band. And to Cathy Salerno and Robin Stewart, a couple of "Strangers in the Night."

Nancy Harkness leaves Lisa McCann 101 ways to get out of detention. And to Gayle Warner, a six of Miller, and 1 free roller coaster ride.

Jim Peloquin, Mark Bittick, and Ernie Khirallah leave Ann Tears a fog horn for her voice, and to Ann Tears, Kathy Harsch, Ivan Basch, and Billy Frank, a book entitled "101 Ways How to Get Good Grades and Be a Dud."

Steve Baxter leaves Donna Ferreira the copy of his first book, "1001 Ways on How to Be Nice." And to Miss Carbonetti, 30 new desks equipped with pillows and books entitled "How to Sleep Through Spanish II and Pass."

Tammy Gould leaves Scott Turnbull a new pair of black platform shoes that he lost on Route 95.

Cindy Priesing leaves Chickie Rivera a new watch band that fits her wrist instead of her whole arm, and also, someone else to help her with her English papers.

Eileen Repucci leaves Denise Donahue cleaning up after Art class, Robin Goddard running for the bus alone, and to Mr. Pacella, another Art student who will do something better with her time, plus 7 more ways to say, "I never said that!"

Jane Sullivan and Mary Sherman leave Michelle Ethier ripping gowns in Filene's.

Sue Fairfield leaves the whole Junior class another year in this wonderful school of M.H.S.

Phyllis Coughlin leaves her sister Anne 1001 better ways to be individual, and she also leaves Danny Harris to wander hopelessly about the halls.

Michelle Ethier leaves Jane, Mary, and Danny in the mountains. And she leaves Larry Mahoney saying thanks to Jane for having an evening of a lovely, lonely day.

Steve Cushing leaves to Jimmy and Scott, tons of good stuff cheap, and a fierce party up the cabin. And to Mr. Spencer Kelley, a 1 year's supply of the Dry Look.

Tab Klenk leaves Jean Marshall a jar of Dippity Doo and a QT Tan.

Carol, Kym, Sue, and Linda leave Miss Bergeron and Miss Tobin a bag of Fritos and a broom to pick up the crumbs.

Rat, Sponge, and Vera leave the Field Hockey Team and Carbo, a season's supply of refs that show up, and 100 rolls of tape to tape up the cleats that fall apart.

Ernie Khirallah, Jim Peloquin, and Neil Davison leave Bill Gasson a Farrah Fawcett hair styling, make-up, and face lift kit.

The French IV class leaves Monsieur DesLauriers a year's supply of flypaper and a quahog of his own.

Terri Sparrow leaves Miss Carbonetti fixing flat tires on the way to MTS, and to Anne Coughlin, the back seat of the bus for all the "good" days!!

Lauren Malay leaves hoping that Bruce Kincaid will grow up, and to her brother David, she leaves nothing.

Donna, Martha, and Helen leave Mr. Barnes saying, "We love you Daddy."

Louanne Hill, Tab Klenk, and Chris Vose leave Miss Morina a vanishing point, and to Miss Gagnon, a ride back to Rhode Island, since her car won't make it.

Ernie Khirallah leaves Mr. Friary a warm fuzzy.

Lennie Bedard leaves to Mr. Dunphy - 5 days payed vacation to fly kites out his window. To Mr. Gerry Kelley, an on/off switch so he can turn off that shirt. To Miss Wood - the remains of 8 dead cats and 1 free tune up for the van. To Mr. Hunter, a new ship and a promotion to colonel. And to Miss Trombley - Greg Galanti.

Pam Hebard leaves her sister Mary, the words "Grow-up."

Verna Valquett leaves Miss Tobin the memories of Bobby and all the foster children they talked about in business law class.

Vera Fitzgerald leaves Bones a large glass of Nestle's Quik and a guitar, and to Peg Faria, a 12 inch ruler.

Nancy Volpe, Tammy Gould, and Elaine Waseleski leave Mr. Dunn a new series of Dr. Bald films.

Denise Newell leaves Kevin her locker and silver trumpet.

Rebecca McCrady leaves Miss Maurer: 1 week of seasons, 1 week of nutrition, 1 week of animals, and 1 day of safety; thanks. And to her sister Jean, a sympathy card.

Brenda Witchley leaves Mr. Kelley her four year supply of late notes, absent notes, detentions, suspensions, and a smile to replace that frown.

Beth Clemmey leaves Tracy Annese in a room full of mirrors with her weekly subscription to "How to Look Like Farrah Fawcett." She leaves Sarah Garland alone in D period study, and she leaves M.H.S. with the regret of wasting the last four years in a place like this.

Jeanette Chavaree leaves her sister Linda all the love she never showed.

Denise Fournier leaves to her brother Glenn, a sympathy card, and to Sue Sankey, her seat on the bus and a big trash bag for their next weekend together.

Ron Chapman leaves Andy Mutz a rubber hammer and 69 rubber nails to help him from banging his thumb up in stage crew. He leaves a bicycle for his sister Pam to get rides in the morning to school. And to Mr. Friary, Mr. Todd, and Ron Reardon, someone else to run the 440, 100, 880, 220, 600, 300, 500, and the relays.

Chris Butler leaves Mr. Pacella - a new notebook so that he can write a new list of P.O.'s. She leaves Paula a new alarm clock, so she can get herself up for school on time. Also a word of wisdom to the faculty and underclassmen: we the unwilling, led by the unknowing and doing the impossible for the ungrateful. And have done so much, for so long, with so little that we are now qualified to do anything with nothing.

Class Prophecy — Airport '97

Now that the time of graduation is near, we would like to project into the future to our 20th class reunion. It all begins when Greg Tarball, Jeff Wood, Brenda Witchley, and Nancy Volpe set up the plans for our class trip. Mike Kuplast and Peter VanGemert persuade Mr. DeStefano to donate the money for an all expense paid trip to Acapulco. Helen Devlin and Marilyn Adams design the brochures for the trip and they send out the invitations. The two month vacation is scheduled for October 15, 1997. We are to fly Foonway Airlines owned by R. C. Wyman Jr.

Members of the class are now filtering into the airport terminal. Tom Finn, still on his permit, and Danny Weir are driving members of the class on the Algonquin Bus Lines. The Foonway stewardesses, headed by a team of Nancy Wellington, Lauren Malay, Rebecca McCrady and stewards Jamie Williamson and Bobby Card, escort the passengers to their seats, and the plane is ready for take off.

The plane, nicknamed "Moby Grape," was designed by Corneilus Davison, and seats over 300 people. The interior is plush purple and was designed by Effie Boutas. It includes all modern equipment, featuring closed circuit T.V. so new Red Sox Team owner Keith Hayes can watch his boys in action during the the flight.

As the flight taxi's down the runway, stewardess Denise Lucia, while walking down the aisle, says to Jeanne Grady and Bill Cleary, "Come up for a breather and fasten your seat belts." Looks like they won't be needing the reserve oxygen tanks on the flight. At this rate they'll never last the eight hours. In the baggage department, Beth Horton finds Jimmy Bachman smuggling his trinkets on board. Sorry Jim, you'll have to leave those at home. Former Olympic track star Kim Kane then comes over the intercom to take the attendance for the flight. Just John Spiezio, short order cook at Jack's, and artist Sue Demaris are absent, as usual.

We all feel in good hands as co-pilots Jim Coggeshall and George Krueck execute a perfect take-off. Ernie Khirallah also assists in the cockpit. The President of the Betty Crocker Co., Dave Hallgren, aided by Tammy Gould, begin to prepare the meal, with an appetizer of baked stuffed hot dogs on school baked rolls, prepared by Stephen "you know me Wanucci" Murphy. Mark Lebel and Lennie Chase break out the chess game, while Denise Newell and Donna Brintnall argue with Margaret Narcisso that we should have gone to Ireland.

The time passes quickly and we refuel in St. Louis. We get off the plane and go to McDonald's where Karen Collins, Jenny Taylor, Phyllis Magro, and Jeanette Chaveree serve Big Macs to Felicia Kuplast, Terri Sparrow, Phyllis Coughlin, Debbie Conroy, and Bonnie Ploof. Cover Girls Laura Athanasia, Louanne Hill, Donna Harris, Carol Dethlefs, and Chris Vose lay out on the runway to catch a few rays.

The flight resumes, and everyone sits down to comfortably enjoy the movie entitled "Who Wants to Write the Class Prophecy Anyway?" Directed by Mark Vierra, it is a story about 190 kids who don't know what they want to do, starring: Maura Tighe, Donna Deltano, Mark Bittick, Diane Cataloni, Ernie Khirallah, Eileen Repucci, James Peloquin, and Denise Fournier. All of a sudden, Mary Sherman jumps up and yells, "This is just like Peyton Place except they all end up in the hospitable!!!" The lighting and technical effects were done by Emory Chapman, and set designs were by Dana Wellington.

Suddenly, Derry Falk, after getting up off the lap of Eddie Jackimowicz, runs to the microphone and says, "Everyone fasten your seat belts, we're about to land in Acapulco." Beth Horton then says, "My how time flies when you're not having fun!" The co-pilots had become preoccupied with showing Mary Gookin and Donna Wilkinson how the many controls work and the plane crashes down on the run way. There is mob hysteria although not many people are hurt, and a large portion of the passengers, including Tom LeBlanc, Mike Gambale, Mike Day, and James and Ralph Giovaniello are so high they never come down anyway. Luckily for us though, Lenny Beddard and Bill Wilcox are there to administer first aid with the rescue squad, and they manage to find everyone in good condition. After everyone calms down, we all load the buses out of Monticello Airport in Acapulco, and check into one of Don Vito Rocco Arcaro's Hotels.

Dying of hunger, Bruce McPhee, Kevin Bell, Vera Fitzgerald and Herbie Moran all pile into a deluxe rented jeep and race to the nearest donut shop. It is there they hear the rumor that Patti Cobb and Lisa Dion had arrived in Acapulco earlier than the rest to prepare for the big party that night.

Back at the hotel that night the big bash begins, and everyone is in rare form, except for Andy Regula who's arm is sore from throwing gourds off his hotel balcony. Steve Cushing rides up on his Harley Davison to join the festivities and gracefully crashes through the window. Elmars Reks comes to the rescue as he runs to pick up the pieces, and Beth Clemmey tows away the smashed up bike in her U-Haul. Not long after the party is rolling, Denise Boyer, Donna Brintnall, Doreen Cataldo, Donna Marston, Francis Sarro, and Verna Valquett become quite inebriated. The Band leaders, Pam Hebard and Denise Newell, lead the class in a "Happy Anniversary" song to Martha and Jon Pierce, who are celebrating their 20th wedding anniversary. A huge cake, made by Sue Senna, is wheeled out and Donna Udall pops out yelling, "Surprise!"

The group then moves to an air hockey table where Matt Sharpe, Peter Souza, and Peter Sharpe are involved in a close game. Nick Rossi and Russel Reardon argue over who is the better player. Marc Pascucci, who is head of the entertainment, quiets everyone down so the show can begin. Mary Nash, Janet Fuller, Sue Knights, Cecilia Thompson, and Nancy Thompson are the dancing girls. They are accompanied by Scott Wood on drums, Tommy Zarek and Dennis Wall on guitar, Skip Phinney on piano, Peter Gleason on trumpet, and Anna Sternlight as the vocalist.

Later during the evening the class party goers are called out to the pool to witness the "Muscle Beach" contest which is already in progress. In the "Best Chest" category it is a close race between Jimmy Unger and Ricky Plante. Ronnie Chapman runs away with the "Best Legs" title, narrowly beating out John Engley. Larry Mahoney and Bobby Smith are in close competition for the "Biceps" contest, but Larry wins because of his friendliness towards the judges. Neil Davison wins the "Best Developed Abdomen" title, but Peter Kent wins "Best Over All."

The spirit of competition is in the air and Fred Funari, Ray Ploof, and Vicki Eckhart decide to display their judo talents in match against each other. After the match, there is a demonstration lesson, throwing several people off balance including John Silvi, Jane Sullivan, Sandra Goff, and Diane Ings. Surprising the crowd, fashion designer Tab Klenk throws Vicki into the pool.

The party continues for a day and a half, when it is broken and everyone sleeps for two days. The next few days are spent on the beach. Steve Baxter plays lifeguard but to no avail because John Mitchell rescues Carol Sibilia, Ann Shortsleeves, Terry Cardinal and Jane Mitchell from the dangerous undertow of the waves. Robin Roane is on the beach, still sipping smoothly her beverages left over from the party, and Karen Fasulo asks her, "What kind of Beverages??"

Brian Paulsen and Nathan Hansel, who are building a huge sand castle, begin to weep when a big wave washes it away. Susan Fairfield then proceeds to bury Walter Mutlow and Jim Pelrine in the sand, but after covering them only up to their chests, she runs out of sand. Several of the old West Mansfield gang start a volleyball game. The winning team, captained by Mike Oberlander, includes Judy Burke, Diane Conley, Cheryl Goyea, Carol Cook. The hapless losers, who buried their heads in the sand, were captained by Nancy Harkness and include Austin Harding, Sean O'Leary, Bret Zecher, and Tommy Weir. That is the extent of our beach day.

For the next two weeks, everyone keeps busy and no one thinks of returning home, until Debby Cook and Kathy Davis remind us that our stay is almost up. David Weiss, Stephen Unger, Roy Smith, and Tom Ruta are too busy racing their dune buggys to think of going home. Kym Arcaro, Sue McCormack, Vicki Martin, and Cindy Preising are still working on their tans, so they are in favor of extending the stay. John Byron, John Candella, Joel Carr, and Rodney Franey, are on a hot streak and can't be torn away from the gambling casino. Dan Demers and Steve Mueller have not finished their photo albums yet and Ann Shortsleeves, Margaret Phillips, and Karen Brown haven't finished their souvenir shopping (besides, there's a rumor that they are seeing some native Acapulcans.)

It is the general concensus of the class that we stay. So a committee of Elaine Waseleski, Ellen Goddard, and Janet Wright decide that Dan Razee and Brian Rose call Mr. DeStefano and inform him that we are staying indefinitely.
